Seminar Programme

Primary Care Ophthalmology (Leeds)

Organised and Chaired by Miss Stella Hornby

Monday 23 November 2015

Venue:
Malmaison Leeds
1 Swinegate
Leeds
LS1 4AG
09.00-09.15 Coffee and Registration

09.15-09.30 Welcome and introduction
Miss Stella Hornby, Oxford Eye Hospital

09.30-10.10 Inequalities in accessing eye care services
Mr Darren Shickle, Institute of Health Sciences, University of Leeds

10.10-10.40 Is small beautiful- and if so, how small? Practicalities of delivering community eye care
Mr Richard Smith, Stoke Mandeville Hospital

10.40-11.00 Questions and discussion

11.00-11.20 Tea/Coffee

11.20-11.55 Community ophthalmology & hospitals without walls. The view from Local Optometric Support Unit (LOCSU)
Ms Zoe Richmond, Local Optical Committee Support Unit, South Tees

11.55-12.30 “Integrating traditional NHS and new AQP Community Ophthalmology providers? Experience from the Leeds CLDN”
Mr Andrew Cassels-Brown, St James's University Hospital, Leeds

12.30-13.30 Lunch

13.30-14.15 Glaucoma – interesting cases
Mr John Salmon, Oxford Eye Hospital

14.15-15.15 Smart phone use in ophthalmology in rural areas
Mr Manoj Kulthresha, Bronglais Hospital, Aberystwyth

15.00-15.15 Questions and discussion

15.15-15.30 Tea/Coffee

15.30-16.00 Update on facial nerve palsies
Mr Jonathan Norris, Oxford Eye Hospital

16.00-16.45 Addressing inequalities and emergency eye care Provision
Mr John Buchan, St James's University Hospital, Leeds

16.45-17.00 Concluding remarks and group discussion