About the position

The SAS Committee encompasses SAS (Specialty, Specialists, Associate Specialists) and locally employed 'Trust' doctors. We represent SAS ophthalmologists on a wide range of leading committees as mentioned above.

SAS doctors are the backbone of the NHS providing stability for their patients in a department, especially during the Covid Pandemic. We encourage SAS to be assertive in how they lead, train and teach others based on their experience.

The SAS Group is an integral to the work of the College and has an influential voice on all major College Committees to represent SAS ophthalmologists' opinions to the College.

Criteria for position

- Fellow, Member or Affiliate member ophthalmologist with up-to-date membership.
- Currently practising as a SAS doctor or LED (Trust) Doctor
- We welcome applications from members from all regions but currently have no representation/require replacement representatives from the following regions:
 - Wales
 - Yorkshire
 - Scotland
 - Mersey
 - East Midlands
 - Oxford

[Type here]

- Peninsula
 - West Midlands
 - Wessex
- Interest in developing education activities/resources to represent SAS doctors on the Education Committee (one post)

Benefits

This role enables our SAS members to gain essential management and leadership skills, influence guideline recommendations, expand our professional networks and grow in our careers successfully. It also helps us gain the confidence needed at local Trust level to encourage leaders, managers and colleagues in providing a healthy and aspirational working environment.

It is exciting to be involved with RCOphth work with the ever-changing NHS, and it is essential we are represented throughout our college on the committees highlighted above. We look forward to new colleagues to grow our team.

How to apply

To apply for this exciting opportunity, please complete the volunteer application form included on our website along with your CV. Please also feel free to email saschair@rcophth.ac.uk, SAS Chair, or Anitta.yoppan@rcophth.ac.uk if you have any questions.

All Eligible individuals will be emailed with confirmation of receipt of application, and we will assess this virtually. At present an online interview will not be required but if we have any questions, we shall contact you via email.
