

Thursday 21 May Glaucoma sub speciality day

Chairs: Wai Siene Ng, Andrew Tatham

08:55 Welcome

Session 1 – Cataract surgery in the glaucoma patient

09:00-09:15 MIGS for the cataract surgeon – Leon Au

09:15-09:30 Premium IOLs for the glaucoma surgeon – Mfazo Hove

09:30-09:45 Cataract surgery and blebs – Filofteia Tacea

09:45-09:55 Discussion

Session 2 – What's new?

09:55-10:10 What's new in glaucoma surgery? – Sheng Lim

10:10-10:25 A way back from hypotony? – Harry Petrushkin

10:25-10:40 Portable Perimetry: Is it ready for prime time or should we stick with the Humphrey? – Peter Jones

10:40-10:50 Discussion

10:50-11:20 MORNING COFFEE

Session 3 – Guidelines

11:20-11:35 The RCOphth MIGS Guidelines – Ricardo De Sousa Peixoto

11:35-11:50 The EGS guide on bleb forming surgery – Panayiota Founti

11:50-12:05 Getting it Right First Time - Lydia Chang

12:05-12:15 Discussion

12:15-12:45 Debate: AI is going to change how you manage glaucoma
FOR Jonathan Yu
AGAINST

12:24-13:45 LUNCH

13:45 Session 3 – Beyond IOP

13:45-14:00 Glaucoma as an inflammatory disease – Colin Willoughby

14:00-14:15 Steroids, uveitis and glaucoma – Narciss Okhravi

14:15-14:30 GLP1 receptor agonists and glaucoma – Zynab Ahmad Mouhammad

14:30-14:45 Why care about systemic medications? – Ali Abbas

14:45-14:50 Discussion

14:50-15:20 AFTERNOON COFFEE

15:20 Session 4 – Pearls from the experts

15:20-15:30 Things I wish I had known as a new consultant – Jonathan Kirk

15:30-15:40 When I wouldn't recommend SLT first line - Niten Vig

15:40-15:50 MIGS from the top – David Lunt

15:50 Session 5 - Tricky situations

15:50- 16:05 Tricky situations in small eyes – Velota Sung

16:05-16:20 Zonule problems - Elizabeth Yang

16:20-16:35 Dealing with diplopia post tube surgery- Saurabh Jain

16:35-16:50 Glaucoma surgery and anticoagulation - Jay Richardson

16:50-17:00 Discussion

17:00 Close